

The lightbox header is illuminated with LEDs to give the header a slim profile. A spot light tray is attached to the top of the unit to provide product downlighting. The polished steel header panel is die cut with the illuminated graphic behind

The main frame of the unit is tubular steel powder coated black

The spade side element constructed from steel tubing and plate

The side panel is polished steel effect MDF or suitable material with an applied vinyl decal

The product hooks supporting lighter products hang off the wire mesh at the rear of the unit. The heavier product hangs off the horizontal bars. This gives maximum flexibility for merchandising

The base and back panel are sheet steel powder coated in an appropriate colour to compliment the product. The back panel can depict a subtle lifestyle image suitable for the product. This can be screenprinted or applied as a decal

Height of unit 2100mm, width 1200mm, depth 600mm

NEVERBEND

confidential & intellectual property of klm engineering © 2006

SPEAR & JACKSON
PRIDE IN A JOB WELL DONE